

Deer King (Simplified Chinese reading comprehension, Level 1, Chinese-English Bilingual)

(This book is with free audio book, and also readable on iPad and tablets.) King Yuan of Chu (?-178 BC) stopped by Yun-meng Lakes to hunt. More than ten thousand deer galloped in front of his eyes. Till the night, this group of deer accidentally broke into a big valley, all the deer were stranded there. The King was going to order his army to kill the herd. Suddenly, a big deer came to the king and said : I hear that people in ancient time will not drain the pond to get all the fish. My lord, we can send you a deer every day if you like venison. In this way, you enjoy it everyday and we can continue to survive and reproduce. Isn't that good? After hearing about this, the king was very ashamed.
