

Because of Anya

Ten-year-old girls dont wear wigs. So why is Anya wearing one? Thats what Keely wants to know. But when Anyas wig falls off in front of the whole class, Keely realizes what she really wants is to help Anya, even though shes not sure how--and even though it means shell have to do something shes afraid of: stand up to her friends. As for Anya, she just wants her hair to grow back, but no one can tell her whether it ever will. How can she learn to accept her disease when she cant even look in the mirror?
