

A Tale of Beauty

Just maybe, she thought, I am not as beautiful as I suppose. Beautiful and wealthy Belladonna Marie with long golden locks desires to marry a genuine man with the sweetness of her beloved father. Daily she dresses in fine glamour to capture the attention of young men downtown. The women are jealous. The men are intimidated. Loneliness becomes a burden, and prideful emotions then control the events in the story that seals her fate, until she learns through kindness that true love is found only through qualities of goodness, and real beauty comes from within the heart. Does she find her prince charming with a blink? A Tale of Beauty is a unique children's story that has numerous moral teachings for all young children. Boys and girls would benefit greatly by its content. Be beautiful...
